

Photos by Airman 1st Class Tessa Cubbon

Army Sergeant Daniel Jones, 90th Medical Support Squadron Veterinary Treatment Facility, gives Nancy Olesinski's dog, Trigger, his six-week shots during a check-up at the Warren Veterinary Treatment Facility here Aug. 23. The VTF treats animals of active-duty servicemembers, retirees and DoD civilians. For more information, call the VTF at 773-3354.

Warren's animal healers

Sergeant Jones looks at the skin scraping he took from Curious through a microscope.

Sergeant Jones takes a skin scraping from Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Michael Drake's dog, Curious.

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Michael Drake holds his pug, Curious, on the scale during his appointment at the Veterinary Treatment Facility here Aug. 23.

Warren Veterinary Clinic's new hours

Monday: 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Tuesday: 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. closed noon to 1 p.m., clinic from 8 a.m. to noon
Wednesday: 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Thursday: 2 to 7 p.m., clinic from 4 to 7 p.m.
Friday: 8 a.m. to noon
Saturday: By appointment